On Sunday, September 19, CU members took off for their very 1st Mini-Mystery Breakfast Run. Here it is:

Does this make sense? Well, it does for Ted & Cookie Trembley, our famed Wagon Masters. They stayed up all night to figure out how to get to our destination, and it was flawless. See for more explanation on the next page.

We met at 9:00 AM at the Ramada Inn located on Landis Ave./Route 55 in Vineland, NJ. We departed at 9:18 by exiting to the right onto Landis Ave, out of the Ramada Inn. We then proceeded on Landis Ave. west over Route 55. Then we made a right onto Route 55 by taking the cloverleaf exit and headed onto Route 55 south. As we proceeded under the Landis Ave. bridge, we then took the next cloverleaf exit that led us to Landis Ave. east. As the caravan proceeded over the bridge all our Corvettes went into the left lane. This was the best part because it gave us a chance to be all together and in line as we proceeded on our run. After going about 3.5 tenths of a mile, the left blinker lights went on again and all of the Corvettes made a left and arrived at our destination which was the Prestige Diner. The Prestige Diner was just two doors down from the Ramada Inn. All of this took no more than 5 minutes...thanks to the ingenuity of our Wagon Masters Ted & Cookie Trembley. This was the shortest Mini-Mystery Breakfast Run of all time!

We had 8 Corvettes with 12 members attending this classic event. The members were: John & Beverly Taormino, Bob & Kathy Aussenberg, Joe & Linda Betterelli, Ted & Cookie Trembley, Michael Hignutt, Frank Hignutt, Bob & Kathy Austino, and Dave Kinsey.

We have to say the service and food was great and employees took very good care of us. Oh, by the way, we had another picture-perfect day with lots of sun and great comfortable temperatures. Thanks to all who participated.
